He Declares That He Will Push the Matter In the Courts.

IMPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. SCRANTON, December 19 .- Constable Washabaugh, of Westmoreland county, who has a warrant for General Master Workman Pow-derly on the charge of conspiracy, preferred by ex-Representative Edward Callaghan, of Beettdale, has not yet arrived here. Mr. Powderly said to-day: "I know nothing more about the case than what I have seen in the newspapers. I presume it is a revival of the charge of conspiracy. I don't know Callaghan, ugh he claims to have met me in the although he claims to have met me in the Bingham House, Philadelphia, on the 7th of April, 1887. If he did meet me there at that time he was not at his post of duty, as he should have been at the K. of L. couvention, which opened at Harrisburg that day. There is no doubt that my name has been used by Callagham's opponents, but I cannot help that. I have been made the viotim of what appears to be a sert of persecution.

When I go to some places I am hauled into court as a witness to the character of some worthless fellow I have never seen. It seems to be a systematic job, and at costs me considerable time and money. I may have my tickets purchased and he ready to depart from a town, when along comes a subpona that compels me to change my plans and pay my way to the town in which the court is held."

Mr. Powderly has been told that Scranton parties are urging Callaghan on to injure him, and he declares he will push the matter in the courts and make these parties show their hands.

Acid in the Blood Accumulating in the joints, is believed to be the cause of rheumatism, from which so many suffer at this season. Hood's Sarsaparilla has had wonderful success in curing this complaint.

It neutralizes the acidity of the blood and re-stores the vital fluid to healthy condition. If you suffer from rheumatism, try Hood's Sar saparilla?

"I have been suffering from an acute attack of rheumatism, induced by a severe sprain of a cace dislocated ankle joint, which caused great swelling and intense pain. But one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla restored circulation, cleansed the blood and relieved the pain so that I am nearly well again. I regard Hood's Sarsaparilla as standing at the head of remedies for purifying the blood and giving a healthy tone to the system."—L. T. HUNT, Springned Mo.
